A Downtown and Off-Broadway sensation, Murder Ballad was conceived by Jonathan Larson, Award winner and two-time Susan Smith Blackburn Prize finalist, Julia Jordan, with book and lyrics by Jordan and music and lyrics by indie rock singer/songwriter, Juliana Nash. Murder Ballad is a steamy and fun thriller with a razor's edge.

Murder Ballad is the dramatic story of a love triangle gone wrong, centering on Sara, an uptown girl who seems to have it all with husband Michael, but whose downtown past with bad boy Tom lingers enticingly and dangerously in front of her. Murder Ballad is an exploration of love, lust, and betrayal set to a killer musical score.

Considered one of the true landmark plays of the 20th century, All My Sons is set two years after the end of World War II. Successful businessman Joe Keller reckons with things he did to survive during the conflict, whilst he and his family come to terms with the loss of a son. The play has stood the test of time, lauded as a state of the nation play on its premiere, and becoming a dangerously relevant allegory today. All My Sons will also star, stage and screen actor (and Buffalo native), Buffalo's Own - Sean Cullen!

In an unremarkable town in rural Indiana, on an uneventful evening, something truly fantastical occurs, and a small family is thrust into a tit-for-tat game of survival against forces that are other worldly. A play that is equal parts comedy and drama, The Light Fantastic brings old school thrills and chills into the now and new.
